MISS MARGARET D. FORBES

Entertainments

MISS BROADWAY HONOREE AT MANY SOCIAL AFFAIRS. Miss Claire Broadway, of Greenwood, Miss., who is spending the holidays at the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Martin Dunkin, is being complimented with a series of delightful social affairs. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Dunkin complimented her with a box party at the Orpheum theater, followed by the serving of a delicious menu in her attractive home on Peabody avenue, where the rooms were prettily decorated in Christmas colors. A crystal basket filled with crimson roses was the lovely centerpiece of the daintily appointed table, with Santa Claus figures adding the Christmas touch, while at the places were favors in the form of cunning little dolls holding bonbons. Eight guest were included in the party.

Another beautiful affair was given in honor of Miss Broadway on Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. Charles Fish complimented her with a card party. The room thrown open to the guests were beautifully decorated to the guests of the party. The hostess also presented a beautiful souvenir of the occasion to the honoree, who was charmingly gowned in black velvet with a black picture of a delicious salad course was served to the guests, 20 of whom had the pleasure of being present.

Dance for Little Daughters. Little Misses Eunice and Marion Canale will be complimented by their mother, Mrs. John Canale, with a dancing party at Miss Riley's studio on Wednesday evening.

The ballroom will be decorated with holly wreaths, Christmas bells and scarlet tulle bows. During the evening punch will be served. Little Miss Eunice will receive her guests in a frock of blue tulle embroidered in silver over blue silk with trimmings of blue and silver flowers. Marion will wear a pink tulle dancing frock embroidered in gold and trimmed in garlands of French flowers. About 200 friends will have the pleasure of being present.

Weddings

Tucker-Beckham. An unusually pretty wedding will be solemnized at the Galloway Memorial Methodist church on Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, when Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Tucker will give in marriage their daughter, Murry Monte Tucker, to Mr. Maurice O. Beckham, the Rev. J. W. Waters, pastor of the church, officiating.

The church will be artistically decorated with palms and ferns forming a background for pink and white roses which will be arranged in tall floor vases. Before the entrance of the bride party, Mrs. Edmund Wiley will sing "At Dawning" and "Love Here is My Heart." During the ceremony "Traumerei" will be softly played. The bride will wear a handsome bridal robe of white satin with trimmings of white crepe. Her veil will be fashioned of silk tulle and worn with a coronet of natural orange blossoms, and she will carry a shower bouquet of bride roses and valley lilies.

Miss Hazel A. Tucker, gowned in pink crepe beaded in blue and white over pink silk and carrying a shower bouquet of Aaron Ward roses, will be her sister's maid of honor. Miss Irene Lee Boswell, wearing a blue satin gown and carrying a shower of Russell roses, will be the bridesmaid. Little Miss Lucille Blumberg, wearing a frock of white satin with trim-

An Old, Old Song of Love!

Played by a sweet-faced girl in the depths of the Redwood forest. To the most notorious outlaw band in the West! Music—beauty—fiery passions—a drunken brawl—and the girl the prize of the strongest! Then the miracle—love! And a hunted outcast's struggle upward to the light. A struggle so fine, so brave, that your heart will long remember—
